

ModTops software system

ModTops is a professional software system for modeling geofiltration and mass transfer in subsurface hydrosphere. As a professional and effective tool, it is used by water management organisations in EECCA region.