

Water Resources Use in Russia: Present State and Projections

The Network of EECOA Water Management Organisations
The main goal of the water management system in the Russian Federation is to ensure supply of water of good quality to people and industry.